Mission Statement

The Mission for the Commercial Council of the Central Minnesota Builders Association (CMBA) is to provide informational and educational services for CMBA members who:

- are commercially active or diversifying into light commercial building and commercial remodeling;
- are building environmentally-friendly structures by incorporating environmental considerations and resource/energy efficiency into land development and building.

The CBC hold 6 membership breakfast meetings per year. Your dues include the breakfast cost for one person per meeting per company. Sponsorships are permitted for the meetings which present speakers geared to the unique viewpoints and specific needs of the council.

Benefits of Membership

- Two memberships, one dues – CMBA & NAHB Commercial Builders Council
- Education: speakers at meetings, learn from fellow members
- Provide sponsorship opportunities at meetings and events
- Network at events, build relationships
- Commercial Builders Council e-magazine – e-newsletter from NAHB for commercial industry
- Linked in NAHB – Where you can network with peers around the nation.
- Designations available
- Award opportunities from National Commercial Builders Council.
- Marketing & Promotion
- Legislation & Advocacy – Keep informed and strong advocate for our industry

Assignment of the Commercial Council

- To provide a forum for networking and discussion of issues relevant to CMBA members active in the commercial industry.
- To provide a vehicle to promote the professional image and standing of members in order to assure the general public of a nucleus of qualified contractors for commercial construction.
- To promote the code of ethics of the CMBA designed to maintain high levels of standards and sound business practices among members.
- Through effective marketing, educate the public to the benefits provided by commercial contractors who are members of the council.
- To provide educational opportunities designed to enhance sound business practices, improve professional skills and discuss relevant industry related issues.
